FRIDGE & PANTRY

While you are on a roll, consider clearing out of your kitchen pantry and fridge. Take 10 or 15 minutes a day to check out what you have, what you realistically will use/eat, and then follow-through with pulling out what needs to go! Items that are expired should be thrown away and if you have unopened items that are still good but you don't plan on eating them—share them with family, neighbors, or a food pantry. And now that you have a clean pantry and fridge, enjoy the fruits of your labor and maybe try a new recipe or two!
